

Family holiday packing checklist

Everything a family with a baby, toddler or young child tends to need, grouped so nothing gets left behind. Tick each thing off as it goes in the case.

Pack the travel-day bag last and keep it with you. Take about double the nappies, snacks and feeds you think the journey needs, in case of a delay.

Documents & money

- ☐ A passport for everyone, in date
- ☐ Boarding passes or e-tickets
- ☐ Travel insurance policy and emergency number
- ☐ A GHIC card for each of you
- ☐ Driving licence and car hire booking
- ☐ Currency, and a card that works abroad
- ☐ Any visa or entry form the country needs

Clothes

- ☐ An outfit a day, plus a few spares
- ☐ Swimwear and sun hats
- ☐ A warm layer for the evenings
- ☐ Pyjamas
- ☐ Sandals and a pair of trainers
- ☐ A light raincoat, just in case

Travel-day bag

- ☐ Snacks and a water bottle
- ☐ A full spare outfit for the baby, and a spare top for you
- ☐ Tablet, small headphones and chargers
- ☐ Nappies, wipes and a change mat
- ☐ The comforter within easy reach
- ☐ A couple of small, quiet toys

Baby & toddler kit

- ☐ Nappies, wipes and nappy sacks
- ☐ Formula, bottles and steriliser bags
- ☐ The comforter, dummy or teddy
- ☐ A cot sheet and a travel blackout blind
- ☐ Baby monitor and night light
- ☐ Changing mat and a spare muslin
- ☐ Bibs, beaker and any usual snacks

Health & sun

- ☐ Calpol or your usual infant pain relief
- ☐ Any regular medicines and a copy of the prescription
- ☐ High-factor sun cream and after-sun
- ☐ Plasters, antiseptic and a thermometer
- ☐ Insect repellent and bite cream
- ☐ Rehydration sachets for upset tummies

Beach & pool

- ☐ Swim nappies for the little ones
- ☐ Armbands or a float vest
- ☐ A parasol or pop-up shade
- ☐ Water shoes for stony beaches
- ☐ Bucket, spade and a couple of pool toys
- ☐ A dry bag for wet swimwear